Recognition 2003

Posturing for a Successful Future

Wednesday, October 29, 2003, Portsmouth's finest volunteers once again set themselves apart from the masses by showing up to be honored and recognized at the Clean Community Commission's 6th Annual Recognition and Awards Ceremony. 64 attendees participated in the event to include several civic league leaders, councilman, and city members of the management staff.

Awards were presented to winners of Operation Clean Up Portsmouth 2003 and the Recognition Contest which had been in place since September. Winners were presented in the categories at right. Photos continued on next page.
