

MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Katie Barnes, Assistant Curator
Portsmouth Museums, History Division
(757) 393-8591
spacekk@portsmouthva.gov

Celebrate Kids—It's YOUR Day!
At the Portsmouth Museums

Portsmouth, VA—June 14th, 2010— On Sunday, August 1st, 2010 from 11:00 am - 5:00 pm, join the Portsmouth Museums for: Celebrate Kids—It's YOUR Day! This is the day that is all about kids, and when kids get to take their adults out to play! Visit us in Olde Towne Portsmouth and take advantage of all 4 Portsmouth Museums as we provide a day of fun for kids of all ages!

Enjoy World War II era activities to celebrate the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard Museum's newest exhibit: Keels of Victory: The City & the Shipyard, 1921-1945. Make and fire at a Target Kite, plant your own Victory Garden, learn how to ration, and design your own World War II era poster. Visit the Lightship PORTSMOUTH, and join in on the School of the Pirate with the Moody Crewe Pirates. Play at Andalo's Clubhouse and see a Fairy Tale exhibit next door at the Courthouse Galleries. Enjoy artist demonstrations and create your own works of art. Meet Andalo, and enjoy magicians, face painters, and balloon artists.

To find out more about Celebrate Kids—It's YOUR Day!, please contact Katie Barnes at (757) 393-8591 or via email at: barnesk@portsmouthva.gov.

###