City of Portsmouth Offices Closed December 27th Trash Collection Rescheduled

Portsmouth, VA - The City of Portsmouth announces that due to the snowstorm today, all city offices including museums and libraries will be closed on Monday, December 27th.

There will be no trash collection on Monday. Monday trash routes will be collected on Wednesday. All Friday, December 31st, trash collection routes will be collected on Friday. The City had announced that these routes would be collected in advance, yet due to today's snowstorm, all Friday routes are back on schedule for collection on Friday.

Citizens are encouraged to stay off of the roads as public safety personnel and street maintenance crews continue in efforts to keep our citizens and roadways safe.
