

August 26, 2011

Today's edition of the Virginian-Pilot has printed unofficial, unauthorized, and inaccurate shelter information for the City of Portsmouth (see scanned article on page two of this release).

The City of Portsmouth would appreciate any assistance from our citizens and local media partners in an effort to provide accurate information critical to the health, safety, and well-being of our citizens.

The following information has been disseminated to the local media, our email subscribers, and our civic league representatives:

City of Portsmouth Shelters will open as follows:
